

The 2022 Regeneron International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF) will take place in Dallas, Texas, between May 14 and 19. The project selected to be presented at ISEF is “Analyzing Access to Quality Nutrition in Students” by Dia Kher from Mississippi School for Math & Science.

The 2022 Regeneron International Science and Engineering Fair (ISEF) Runner-up project is “Analyzing the Potential for Vitamin D3 to Serve as a Protective Measure for Degeneration in Diabetes” by Madison Echols from Mississippi School for Math & Science. Due to the cancellation of the region 1 science fair which both Dia Kher and Madison Echols would have participated in, Madison Echols will also advance to the international science fair.